

Year 6 Term 2 Book Warmer

Red Leaves by Sita Brahmaehari

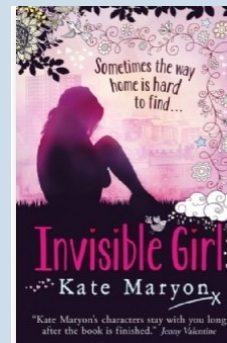

Aisha is devastated when her foster mother announces that a new family have been found and she will be moving on. Zak is struggling to cope with his parent's divorce. Iona's family fell apart long ago, shattering her dreams and forcing her to live on the streets. In an ancient city wood, these three separate lives become entwined... But when they all feel so lost, how will they ever find their way home?

Also by Sita Brahmaehari:

Red Leaves has parallel plotlines, one is told through text and the other through pictures. You might like to explore the following texts which also use incredible illustrations alongside the text to tell the stories.

Where I live—Brenda Rufener

Invisible Girl - Kate Maryon

See if you can draw your own 'red leaves':

Have a go at creating your own "red leaves"

Year 6 Term 2 Book Warmer

Red Leaves by Sita Brahmaehari

Have a look on the Woodland Trust website to see what arts and crafts you can make with your very own leaves:

Select a poem and see if you can up level the language using a range of figurative language:

How does it feel to be a refugee and what can we do to help?

Using the National Trust website, can you build your own den?

